Guiding In Hong Kong

The Guiding Movement started in Hong Kong in 1916. The Hong Kong Girl Guides Association is a full member of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts with links in other member organizations.

Our objective is to provide girls and young women with opportunities for self-training in the development of character, responsible citizenship and service in their own and world communities.

How much time and money are involved?

Members of Happy Bee usually have their unit meeting weekly and each meeting will last about 1 to 2 hours.

Some outdoor/indoor activity could be arranged for members if necessary.

The Sponsoring Authority may determine whether they should levy the charge and how much.

Membership Application

Membership Application Form is obtainable at Girl Guides Headquarters or can be downloaded from Association's website <http://www.hkgga.org.hk>.

Happy Bee

Happy Bee is a Parent-Child Programme designed for children aged from 4 to 6 studying in K2 or K3. The programme consists of two major parts, including Lower Kindergarten and Upper-Kindergarten, with eight units for each level. Children will be rewarded with a sticker each on the Handbook after the completion of each unit.

Eight Training Areas

Lower Kindergarten :

Upper-Kindergarten :

GUIDING IS FUN!

Training Objectives

To provide children with social understanding and knowledge of health matters. This enables them to have a better understanding of the society, and also to train them in developing good habits and to become independent.

To help children develop motor skills and coordination, together with enhancing their inter-personal skills.

To arouse the children's interest in participation of activities. Through these activities, children learn to become more cheerful, outgoing, courageous and obedient. They also have the opportunity to learn problem-solving skills.

Mode of activities

1. The programme consists of interesting games and activities, which correlate with the kindergarten curriculum.
2. The aim of the programme is to have the support and involvement of the parents. Parents are encouraged to participate in games and activities together with their children at home. This enables them to have a better understanding of their children's needs and growth.
3. The aim of the programme is to satisfy the curiosity of children, arouse their interest in various activities and also to help in the development of their inter-personal skills.
